

Join Us on Survivor Sunday

About Survivor Sunday

Survivor Sunday is an invitation for individuals and Christian churches across the nation to join together in prayer on Sunday, October 14, 2018 for those who have been affected by gun violence in America. These other victims are the loved ones of those killed by senseless gunfire. They are the spouses, children, parents, siblings, friends, companions, neighbors, co-workers and entire communities who have been traumatized by the loss of someone taken away in this agonizing manner. The mission of Survivor Sunday is to remind our country that compassion for the survivors of gun violence is rooted in Jesus' parable of the Good Samaritan (Luke 10:25-37). Jesus commanded us to love our neighbors, which includes strangers and anyone caught in the crossfire of violence, regardless of their faith, ethnicity or neighborhood.

Restoring Broken Lives

The hundreds of deaths this year from gun violence have shaken faith communities and America at large. We understand all too well that it can be difficult to determine what to do and how to react to these tragedies. That's why this year's Survivor Sunday will be focusing on Restoring Broken Lives. We are hopeful that this day will bring individuals and churches across our nation together for the purpose of calling upon our heavenly Father to restore broken lives. In turn we believe that these prayers will collectively stir hearts to action in order to bring an end to senseless gun violence everywhere.
